In Kovacico, for example, two peasants, "artin Polerac and Jacob Czech, were sent nome after their eyes and been gouged out by Commissar Zarko of the Pancevo (near Bolgrade) secret police (OZNA). Bolerac and Czech were forced to mander in the streets of Kovacico, telling their neighbors that they had received punishment for attempting to hide grain from the Government. Czech, after refusing to admit the justice of his punishment, had his tongue cut off by the secret police.
